

Miss Jean Rodas, of Chillicothe, is the guest of her uncle, Will Rodas.

Matinee every Saturday at the Orpheum, commencing Saturday Sept. 3.

John Stout and mother took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. James Stout Sunday.

Mrs. W. F. Kibler and Mrs. C. V. Critchfield spent Monday in Cincinnati.

Frank Sharp, of Lynchburg, spent Sunday with Charles Kibler and family.

J. W. Hunter and wife, of Marshall, were guests of W. L. Duncan and wife, Sunday.

Orville Bond, of Dresden, spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday with relatives here.

Mrs. Elza Wilkins, of Danville, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. George Pugh.

William H. Burnett and wife were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. James P. Stout over Sunday.

Miss Margaret Barrere, who has been visiting relatives at Madisonville, returned home Sunday.

Miss Maud Haggerty, of Welsh, W. Va., is a guest at the home of her father, J. W. Haggerty.

Wyatt Young, who has been spending the summer at Pointe aux Pins, Mich., has returned home.

W. H. Vance and wife were guests of the former's father, Frank Vance, near Hollowtown, Sunday.

J. D. W. Spargur left Monday for a trip to Baltimore, Md., New York city and other points in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Garrison, of Anderson, Ind., are the guests of the former's uncle, Thomas Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fairley and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace B. Rogers spent Sunday with friends at Wilmington.

Miss Lizzie Hughes is attending the Home Coming at Wilmington. She is the guest of Dr. Bessie Shrofe, of that city.

Henry Kent and sisters, Misses Ruth and Lena, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Sanders Fanning, at Clearcreek.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Roush and son, DeForest, spent Sunday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Carey Pence, west of town.

Joseph VanZant has purchased the grocery store of George Miller at Marshall and will conduct the business at the same stand.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spetnagle, Theodore Spetnagle and Mr. Beandel, of Chillicothe, were the guests of friends here Sunday.

Mrs. A. Z. Farrell and two children, of Columbus, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Williams, a short distance east of town.

Roy Harshbarger has resigned his school in New Market township and will take a scientific course of study in Denison University at Granville.

Mrs. A. T. Thomas and son, Harold, returned home Sunday from a week's visit with the former's sister at Peru, Ind. Mr. Thomas met them in Cincinnati.

Dr. O. A. Hopkins and wife and H. Hoskins and family, of Middletown, and Prof. L. S. Hopkins, of Pittsburg, Pa., were entertained by Dr. O. A. Thompson and family Sunday.

O. A. Landess and family were the guests of his parents at Danville Sunday. All the members of the family were present and had their pictures taken by Phil Weyrick of this city.

Joe Bell and wife and two children, accompanied by the Misses Bess and Lola Underwood, attended the Friends yearly meeting at Wilmington Sunday going over in Mr. Bell's automobile.

Z. E. England gave a picnic party for his Sunday School class, composed of about 20 boys and girls of the U. B. Church last Friday night out on the Holladay lands near the gravel banks on the Danville pike.

G. W. Riber, of Washington C. H., was the guest of his son, Burch, Saturday. He contemplates moving here with his family if he can purchase a farm near town and was looking at some places Saturday.

Miss Dorothy Scarborough entertained with a delightful party Thursday evening for Ruth Herron and Lillian LaMonda. About fifty were present and enjoyed music, games and refreshments from seven to ten.

Dr. Andre and W. V. Watts, of Waverly, J. R. Head and R. T. McCoppin, of Bainbridge, C. A. Watts and family, of Peebles, J. W. Watts and family, of this city, and J. E. Ware and family, of Lynchburg, Va., were entertained at the home of Judge and Mrs. T. M. Watts, Sunday. All the children of the family were present and a most enjoyable time was had.

Circus day is one week from to-day, Thursday, Sept. 1.

Matinee at the Orpheum Circus day, Thursday, Sept. 1.

Dan Scott and family spent Sunday with friends at Norwood.

Miss Julia Rogers was the guest of friends at Greenfield the past week.

Dr. Walter Rudisill returned Saturday from a week's visit with friends north of town.

Mesdames Neil Priest and Charles Swisshelm spent Friday at the Carthage Fair.

A picnic was given by Mrs. G. E. Brown Friday afternoon for Mrs. C. V. Critchfield.

Mrs. O. A. Thompson entertained a company of ladies with a Kensington Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Henrietta B. Nelson went to New Vienna Thursday for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. Will Reed and children are at home after an extended visit with relatives at Portsmouth.

Fred McClure left Monday for a months tour through Michigan in the interest of Bell's Eoundry.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Small, of Blanchester, were the guests of their son, Aaron, a few days last week.

W. E. Coffman and George Clark attended the funeral of P. W. Tedrick, at Dodsenville, last Thursday.

Prof. Stacey Russ, of Pittsburg, Kansas, spent a few days last week with his cousin, Dr. H. A. Russ.

Miss Bessie Brock was the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Winegar, near Greenfield, a few days last week.

J. J. Pond and wife, of South Charleston, are spending the week with Henry Frost and family, west of town.

The Stroup Reunion is being held at the usual place near Dodsenville today. Special rates over traction line.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ware, of Lynchburg, Va., are the guests of the latter's parents, Judge and Mrs. T. M. Watts.

Misses Lucile Huggins and Nina Glenn and L. Philip Shawe and Burch D. Huggins spent Friday at Butler Springs.

George Muhlbach, of Columbus, is spending a week's vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Muhlbach, south of town.

Leslie Warman and wife, of Pricetown, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Supt. James Donohoo and wife, of the Infirmary.

Miss Anne Quinn will leave here Wednesday for Montreal, from which place she will sail Saturday for Paris, where she will continue her studies.

Roy Ferris, of New York City, arrived here Friday morning to spend his vacation with his mother, Mrs. E. L. Ferris, and his sister, Miss Margaret.

B. C. Donohoo spent Sunday at D. A. Pulliam's at Pricetown. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Donohoo and son, who had been visiting there for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Brook, of Springfield, after a short visit with the former's parents, have returned home. Their children remained for a few weeks visit.

Lee Stevens and wife and daughter have returned to their home at Marion, Ind., after a few days visit with his brother, F. F. Stevens, and other relatives in this county.

Is there anyone who does not enjoy a good circus? Certainly not. The Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus is among the best and biggest. It will show in Hillsboro Thursday, September 1.

Miss Nancy Fairley entertained with a six o'clock dinner Friday evening for Miss Mary Hussey, who will leave in a short time to assume her duties as teacher in the East Liverpool public schools.

About forty soldiers and their friends who had intended to attend the G. A. R. encampment at Atlantic City in September will not go on account of the high rate of railroad transportation.

Mrs. H. M. Vanzant and son, Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones, of the Samantha neighborhood, returned Monday from a ten days trip to Niagara Falls and other points near the Falls.

"Ranch Life in the Great Southwest" at the Orpheum Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday matinee, Sept. 2 and 3. Positively the greatest sensation in moving pictures ever shown here. Admission 5 cents.

Mrs. Jas. McDermott and Mrs. Geo. Barrere will entertain the "Altruistic Association" at Mrs. Barrere's residence Friday, Aug. 26, at 3 o'clock. The programs for this year will be distributed at this meeting. All members and their friends are invited.

J. A. Martin is spending the week with relatives at Greenfield.

Leslie Hoyt, of Cincinnati, spent Sunday with his parents here.

Miss Ethel Miller was the guest of Mrs. E. P. Worley during the Institute.

Miss Maud Thompson, of Norwood, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Will Engbers.

A. T. Bowman, of Dayton, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Worley Saturday.

Mrs. William Purdy, of New Market, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. S. Trop, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks White are rejoicing over the arrival of a girl baby at their home.

The open air concert by the Aristo Concert Band this evening at 7:30 o'clock, sharp.

Col. and Mrs. Dan Morgan have returned home after a several weeks stay at Battle Creek, Mich.

Dave Priest and son, Harry, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Priest.

On account of the circus being here Thursday, next week's open air concert will be given Wednesday evening.

Rev. George W. Hall, of New Antioch, will preach at the Christian Church next Sunday morning and evening.

Burch D. Huggins, after a six weeks vacation spent with his father and sister here, returned to his home at Columbus Tuesday.

Mrs. N. B. LaMonda and daughter, Miss Lillian, returned Tuesday from a few days visit with relatives at Carmel and Rainsboro.

Miss Lucille Warson returned to her home at Westerville, Tuesday, after having spent the summer with relatives in this county.

Van Kent is taking a weeks vacation from his duties at the grocery. Neal Priest is acting as substitute during his absence.

Prof. N. B. LaMonda and family will leave today for their new home at Hamilton. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Miss Mary Post, after an extended visit with her cousin, Mrs. J. B. W. Spargur, returned to her home at Battle Creek, Mich., Wednesday.

Wallis & Savage have opened a grocery and general merchandise business at Harwood in the room formerly occupied by George Ballentine.

The Queen Esther Home Mission Circle of the M. E. Church will give an ice cream supper on the Court House lawn Thursday evening Aug. 25.

Mrs. Anna Miller, of East Main street, has as her guests her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Carroll, of Hartford City, and niece, Mrs. Charles Stover, of Eaton, Ind.

Mrs. Katherine Shoults, of Bainbridge, and Master Clyde Shade, of Springfield, were guests of the former's uncle and aunt, Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Shade, Sunday.

Miss Alice Fallon entertained Monday night with a theatre party for her nieces, the Misses Connolly. The evening was pleasantly spent in the playing of games. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Mary C. Henderson, of East Walnut street, is entertaining her son, Rev. A. S. Henderson, and wife, of Muscatine, Io. Her grandson, H. E. Henderson, of Five Mile, was also her guest Sunday.

Joe Miller, who has been in Kier's barber shop for some time, has taken employment at the Parker House barber shop and J. T. Taylor, who was connected with that place, will work at Kier's shop.

Edward Barnes, stock keeper with the McKeehan Hiestand Grocery Company, and his family are spending the former's vacation with relatives and friends at Portsmouth and different points in Indiana.

C. P. Connolly and family and Miss Jennie Connolly, after an extended visit with Mrs. John Fallon and daughter, Miss Alice, left yesterday afternoon for New York City, where they expect to make their future home.

Walter Lemon has resigned his position with the McKeehan Hiestand Grocery Company Saturday evening. This week he is attending the Teachers' Institute. He will teach this winter in one of the schools of New Market township.

Mesdames Late Lemon, John and Lewis Swisshelm planned a picnic for the members of the Clear Creek Sunday School last Wednesday which was a splendid success in every particular. Lemonade, ice cream and cake were served and a royal good time was enjoyed by more than 100 members of the school.

SPECIAL PRICES

Boys' And Children's Suits

I have cut prices on all my Boys' and Children's Suits and will save you big money by buying now.

Boys' Suits in Good Qualities

At $3.00, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $7.00, Up to $8.00

Former Prices From $5.00 Up to $12.50

Children's Suits From $1.00 to $4.00

CALL AND SEE THEM NOW

Sam R. Free
THE EXCLUSIVE CLOTHIER
FREE'S CORNER, HILLSBORO, O.

Slashing of prices in fine teas at The Bee Hive.

Mrs. John Franklin was the guest of relatives at Loveland last week.

The best 2 for 5 cigars at 95c a box of 50 at The Bee Hive's big sale.

Mrs. Olive Powell, of Dayton, was a guest at the home of David Selph Sunday and Monday.

There never was as good jewelry at little prices sold in Hillsboro, as is sold now at The Bee Hive.

Mrs. Will Bennett, who has been at the Adams County Mineral Springs for the past two weeks, returned home Monday.

W. H. T. Shade and Hamlin Smith have been engaged to augment the New Vienna Band at the Wilmington Home Coming celebration tomorrow.

Mrs. A. H. Hull and son, Virgil, returned Tuesday from a ten days' trip with her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Ocker, of Monroe county.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Worley, of Bainbridge, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Worley Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. C. F. Faris and wife entertained his mother, Mrs. Eliza Faris, of Pricetown, and his brothers, J. O., of Danville, Ill., and B. F., of Fairview, and their families, Tuesday.

Miss Mary B. Evans will leave Saturday for Middletown, where she has been employed as instructor of music. She will attend the Butler County Teachers' Institute at Hamilton next week.

Supt. J. A. Shannon, of Castalia, is visiting friends here and attending the H. C. T. I. Mr. Shannon is superintendent of two town and twelve district schools. He was re-employed for the coming year at an increased salary.

During the thunder storm last Thursday afternoon lightning struck the large wind pump of Gatch Redkey, near Rainsboro and damaged it considerably. The same afternoon the large barn on the farm of Mrs. Abbie McLaughlin between Danville and Hollowtown was struck and burned.

There is no sham, no make believe, no deception, no misrepresentation about "Ranch Life in the Great Southwest." It is matchless in conception and historically correct in every detail. At the Orpheum for two nights only and one matinee. Friday and Saturday Sept. 2 and 3. Admission only 5 cents.

20-Different Styles-20

OF

Studebaker Buggies

To be sold in THIRTY DAYS to make room for fall shipment of stoves. EVERY ONE A STUDEBAKER

W. H. BALLETINE

The Bee Hive, 5, 10 and 25—let that be your watchword.

Miss Georgia Lucas, of Oxford, is visiting friends and relatives here.

The post card center of Highland county—The Bee Hive, of course.

Mrs. Nannie Graff, of Iowa, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fairley.

Come to The Bee Hive grocery department and see if you can't save from 15 to 30 per cent.

Miss Mary Stabler has accepted a position at Huntington, W. Va., and left yesterday to begin work.

The slashing of prices in The Bee Hive grocery department will go on as long as there is anything left.

Amen Wedding, of Anderson, Ind., is the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike McMahon, after a two week's visit with relatives at New York City, arrived home Friday.

Mrs. Will Hogsett and Miss Olive Berryman are visiting relatives at Hamilton.

F. L. Haynes and family, of Dayton, are the guests of the former's brother, C. E. Haynes, and Mrs. Haynes' mother, Mrs. W. W. Shepherd.

Charles B. Maddox and family, of Otterbein, Ind., arrived here Monday in their motor car for a visit with the former's uncle, H. H. Maddox.

Mrs. Robert Hawthorne, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Woodrow Johnson and son, of Pittsburg, Pa., returned to their homes Saturday, after a visit with relatives here.

While the big sale at The Bee Hive has been going on for nearly two weeks, it is really only just getting started, for we are putting out new goods daily, as we find room.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Curt Walker and children returned Sunday evening from a week's vacation at the Adams County Mineral Springs.